COMMUNITY

Christian Sprout Intercultural School (CSIS) is a small K-12 private school in Yongin City. The school is known in the community for its focus on Christian and character education in student and parent communities. Approximately 30 percent of teachers hold a graduate degree in specialized fields and come from various nationalities. CSIS strives to provide a caring and safe school environment for the “whole-person” development of each student.

ENROLLMENT

Total: 234 students

Secondary: 111 students

Elementary: 123 students

Teacher / Student ratio: 1:16

MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is the pursuit of a holistic development of young Christian leaders through Christian education and character building. Our school community recognizes the needs for developing the future generation of Christian disciples and creative critical thinkers who would make valuable contributions to the society. In order to achieve this mission, CSIS follows the US curriculum based on Common Core Standards with biblical integration while promoting bilingualism in class. The main instructional language is English.

STRATEGIC ACADEMIC PLAN

The academic year is divided into two semesters including an exhibition period at the end of each semester to give students an opportunity to exhibit their learning. CSIS students are provided an array of valuable learning opportunities ranging from core subjects, Project-Based Learning, debate and extracurricular activities such as fencing and club sports, all of which follow closely in accordance with our educational philosophy.

Educational Philosophy: the Seven Goals of CSIS

1. Following God's vision.
2. Shaping strong moral character.
3. Forming a habit of self-directed learning.
4. Strengthening families and improving communication
5. Inspiring hearts and minds for global (global & local) leadership.
6. Discovering and developing individual talents and gifts.
7. Serving to transform communities.
